Cybercrime & Online Fraud Can Happen to Anyone
FraudSupport.org is here to help.

Find Resources & Guidance
→ Identity Theft
→ Hacked Account/Devices
→ Financial/Purchase Scams
→ Imposter Scams and Cyber Bullying / Harassment / Stalking.

Report-Recover-Reinforce
A resource database to help guide you through the process after a cybercrime has occurred.

FraudSupport.org
Offers specific resources for Small Businesses, Older Adults, Military Members, their Families and Children/Youth.

Help Starts Here: Visit FraudSupport.org

fraudsupport.org
powered by: cybercrime SUPPORT NETWORK
You Are Not Alone, and Help is Here For You.

You Are Not Alone, and Help is Here For You.

FraudSupport.org
Powered by Cybercrime Support Network
Non-Profit 501c3

The Problem
Knowing where to go and what to do after a cybercrime can be confusing and scary. As an individual or small business, you may struggle to find the help you need, and the response from different agencies can vary depending on where you live.

The Solution
FraudSupport.org
A first of its kind resource database to provide you with the resources you need to report, recover and reinforce. Giving you a place to turn to, a place to help make a plan and the support you need.

Help Starts Here: Visit FraudSupport.org

You Are Not Alone, and Help is Here For You.

FraudSupport.org
Powered by Cybercrime Support Network
Non-Profit 501c3

The Problem
Knowing where to go and what to do after a cybercrime can be confusing and scary. As an individual or small business, you may struggle to find the help you need, and the response from different agencies can vary depending on where you live.

The Solution
FraudSupport.org
A first of its kind resource database to provide you with the resources you need to report, recover and reinforce. Giving you a place to turn to, a place to help make a plan and the support you need.

Help Starts Here: Visit FraudSupport.org

You Are Not Alone, and Help is Here For You.

FraudSupport.org
Powered by Cybercrime Support Network
Non-Profit 501c3