Election Team Hits the Road for Registration Deadline

POLK COUNTY, FL (February 14, 2020) – The last day to register to vote for the March 17th Presidential Preference Primary Election is Tuesday, February 18th, and the Polk County elections office will be offering voter registration services around the county to ensure that everyone has an opportunity to register before this important deadline.

Mobile registration units will be visiting 13 locations around the county on Tuesday. Residents who have not yet registered can sign-up to vote, and voters may update their information if it’s not current with the Elections Office. Additionally, voters can obtain sample ballots, information about early voting, or request a mail ballot. Only voters registered with the Democratic Party or Republican Party are eligible to vote in this election, as they will choose their nominee for the presidential election in November.
